The Quartermaster

Greetings to all the Grahams!

Thank you for browsing through our Quartermaster's catalog.

The Quartermaster's Chest was established to assist Clan Graham Society members in acquiring items with the clan logo that are not readily available from other sources. The Quartermaster's goal is to supply quality items at a reasonable price. These items are perfect for Graham gatherings and for showing your clan pride!

Please remember that the price for an item is the cost of producing the item, plus the postage required to send the item. The order form is available in this catalog and also downloadable online from our website at the Quartermaster's page at <http://www.clan-graham-society.org/quartermaster.html>.

Please send payment in the form of a check or money order in U.S. funds only to protect you from potential problems in the mail system. We process orders once per month. If you need items by a certain date, please order ahead. Allow 6-8 weeks for delivery. For more information, please contact the Quartermaster.

Aye,

Scott Graham

The image shows the front cover of a book bound in dark brown leather with a pebbled texture. The cover is framed by a thin, light-colored thread. In the top-left and bottom-left corners, there are brass corner protectors. On the right side, the spine is visible, featuring two brass hinge plates, each secured with three screws. The overall appearance is that of a classic, well-crafted leather-bound volume.
